

ENOP symposium 2013

From Psychology Departments to Business Schools: The Changing Location of Work and Organizational Psychologists and the Implications for W/O Psychology

Organizers: Karina Nielsen, Cornelius König, David Guest, Fred Zijlstra

Date: 21-23 March 2013, Paris

Theme: Why have so many W&O psychologists moved into business schools? Is this to the advantage or disadvantage of Work & Organizational Psychology? What are the policy implications for the discipline?

Location: Université Paris Descartes
Institut de Psychologie
Salle du conseil
71, Avenue Edouard Vaillant
92774 Boulogne Billancourt Cedex

Thursday 21 March

2.00 pm Introduction to the topic by David Guest

2.15 pm Presentation of an "issues" paper including feedback on survey and complementary analyses by Karina Nielsen and Cornelius König.

3.00 – 3.30 Discussion

3.30 - 4.00 tea break

4.00 – 4.30 Location of authors publishing in W/O Psychology journals. David Guest

4.30 – 5.30 Discussion and Questions

Friday 22 March

9.30 AM W/O Psychology in the Context of National Research Assessment in the UK:
John Arnold

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

11:00 The Location and Impact of W/O (I/O) Psychologists in the USA.
(Speaker to be confirmed)

12:00 Discussion

12:30 – 1:30 Lunch

1:30 PM Causes and consequences of the shifting location for W/O research: Fred Zijlstra

2.30 PM The role of W&O psychology in relation to policy makers:
Robert Roe (president of EFPA)

2:30 - 3:30 tea break

4:00 Developing an Agenda for the Future of W&O Psychology (Open discussion)
5:00 Conclusion and Close of Symposium (all)

Saturday 23 March

9:30AM Business Meeting ENOP

1:00PM closing